Subject: Invitation to CICA<sup>1</sup> Industrial Poverty Alleviation Model Training and Workshop

Dear Sir/Madam,

The Agricultural Information Institute of Chinese Academy of Agricultural Sciences (AII, CAAS) and the Centre for International Agricultural Research of Chinese Academy of Agricultural Sciences (CIAR, CAAS) have the pleasure to invite you to the “CICA Industrial Poverty Alleviation Model Training and Workshop”, co-hosted by AII and CIAR on October 25-26, 2021 in Beijing, China.

Driving the poor out of poverty through the development of industries is a widely recognized measure of poverty alleviation in the world. In China's battle against poverty, industrial poverty alleviation is also at the top priority of the "five batches" of precise poverty alleviation measures, implemented as the fundamental approach to stable and continuous poverty eradication, with many good industrial poverty alleviation models having emerged in practice.

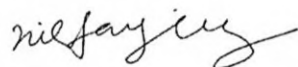

This training workshop aims to build a platform for industrial, academic, and research exchanges and cooperation in industrial poverty alleviation among CICA member states, enhancing the choice of adaptability models for industrial poverty alleviation, the industrial development capabilities, as well as the mechanisms and effectiveness evaluation capabilities of industrial poverty alleviation. Experiences and lesson-learned from domestic and international industrial poverty reduction practices will be shared by speakers and participants. It is hoped to promote cross-regional cooperation for industrial poverty alleviation, providing intellectual support and policy recommendations for the promotion of effective models and the widespread use of technology of industrial poverty alleviation.

Representatives of international organizations, researchers, policy makers, entrepreneurs, and other stakeholders (young and women) in poverty reduction from CICA member states will participate in the workshop, which will take place both offline in the CIAR-Meeting Room at AII of CAAS for guests from domestic and online for other guests.

I have the pleasure to invite you to attend the workshop as guest speaker.

Please confirm your attendance by filling the attached form and kindly send it together with your CV to Ms. Yilan Zhao (zhaoyilan@caas.cn) before October 22, 2021.

Warm regards,

Dr. Nie Fengying

Deputy Director General, Agricultural Information Institute, CAAS
Deputy Director General, CIAR/CAAS
