Program for the 2022 CICA Think Tank Forum (Draft)

SIIS plans to organize the Tenth CICA Think Tank Forum from November 30 to December 1. The forum invites representatives from the governments and think tanks of the 28 CICA member states. It consists of the opening ceremony, three academic sessions and the closing ceremony, with the theme of “Sustainable Security in Asia in a Period of Turbulence and Transformation: Challenges and Vision”. Details of the program are as follows.

Theme: Sustainable Security in Asia in a Period of Turbulence and Transformation: Challenges and Vision

Date: November 30 to December 1, 2022 (GMT+8)

Format: Hybrid

Languages: English and Russian (with simultaneous interpreting)

Participants: Representatives from the governments and think tanks in the CICA member states

Program: (GMT+8)

November 30, 2022

15:00-15:40 Opening Ceremony

Speeches by the CICA Secretary General, SCO Secretary General, representative of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of China, and organizers of the meeting (SIIS).

15:40-15:45 Adoption of the Agenda

15:45-16:00 Coffee Break

16:00-17:30 Session I Capacity Building for Sustainable Security in Asia: Food Security and Energy Security

Currently, the global security environment is undergoing profound changes, and the spillover effects of traditional security issues are expanding globally. Asian countries are facing food security and energy security issues caused by external factors, which pose a serious threat to many developing countries in Asia. How should Asian countries strengthen their security capacity building in related areas? What role should the CICA play in promoting inter-state cooperation to address non-traditional security issues?

6 Speakers (10 min/each)

Free Discussion (30 min)

December 1, 2022

14:00-15:30 Session II Capacity Building for Sustainable Security in Asia: Green Transformation and Connectivity

Security and development are two sides of the same coin, and achieving sustainable development is the basis for enhancing sustainable security capabilities. Green economy has become a new highlight in today's international economic development. How can Asian countries promote the green transformation of their economies, and what role will the CICA play in this? In addition, strengthening intra-regional connectivity in Asia is an important part of the new regional economic integration process, and an important basis for forming more effective regional industrial chains. How should CICA take advantage of its position to promote regional connectivity?

6 Speakers (10 min/each)

Free Discussion (30 min)

15:30-15:45 Coffee Break

15:45-17:15 Session III 30 Years of CICA: Achievements, Challenges and Prospects

It has been 30 years since the establishment of the CICA.

Under the leadership of successive presidencies and with the joint efforts of all member states and observers, the CICA has become an inclusive and broad-based regional security dialogue and cooperation platform in the field of Asian security, and also has considerable global impacts. At present, the global and regional security environment is changing more intensely, and the transformation and development of the CICA is facing serious challenges from all sides. It is hoped that participants will express their views on how to assess the prospects of the CICA and what initiatives and plans can be put forward to promote its development.

6 Speakers (10 min/each)

Free Discussion (30 min)

17:15-17:30 Closing Ceremony

Closing remarks by officials from the CICA Secretariat and organizers of the meeting (SIIS).
